

Pyroinc100/256 Combustion Control System with thermal imaging camera

Picture above: IR-camera system with moving device
Picture on right side: process cabinet for the security extraction device.

Online process control on the great:

Pictures above: Thermal images of the whole surface of the great (fuel bed). Location of the area with the maximum heat release (main combustion zone). Image with the border line of the burning area and the burned mass with final cooling zone